

QUIET LABOR DAY FOR ALEXANDRIANS

No General Celebrations Planned Within the City—Excursions to Nearby Resorts.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 5.—Labor day will be quietly observed in Alexandria tomorrow, there being no general celebration within the city. The city and government offices and the banks will observe the day as an entire holiday and most of the places of business will be closed at noon. Hundreds of Alexandrians left today to spend today and tomorrow at nearby resorts.

The Alexandria Trades Council will give an all-day celebration at the Dyke on the Washington-Virginia railway, three miles below Alexandria. The program will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock with a ball game between the machinists and the glass blowers at 2 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a game between the Cardinals, of this city, and the Holy Trinity team, of Washington.

The following compose the committee in charge of the celebration: D. Larkins, chairman; J. K. Sparrow, T. Nelson, Roy Nevitt, W. S. Rison, Carl Rothmund, W. R. Hamilton, F. Bler, Theodore Mueller, and F. Cockrell.

Funeral services for Mrs. Frances Clapdore, widow of Henry Clapdore, who died at the Alexandria Hospital yesterday morning, took place this afternoon from Wheatley's undertaking chapel. Interment was in the Bethel Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary E. Sorrell, who died Friday night at the Alexandria Hospital, will be buried in the Bethel Cemetery tomorrow afternoon. The funeral services will take place from the residence on North Fairfax street, extended, and will be conducted by the Rev. W. J. Morton.

On account of tomorrow being a holiday, the meeting of the city school board, scheduled to be held tomorrow night, will not be held until Tuesday night. Clerk Kirk will commence the issuance of permits to attend the public schools at the armory on Tuesday morning.

The September term of the corporation court will commence on Monday morning, September 13. Among the cases to be heard at this term is that of Joseph Henderson, charged with the murder of his brother on April 23 last.

Commonwealth Attorney Mackey, of Alexandria county, has called today to Judge J. R. Thornton, of Manassas, asking him to call a special session of the circuit court as early as possible, as there are several important matters he wishes to dispose of before the regular session late in October.

ANACOSTIA.

A number of gatherings have been arranged for this section tomorrow, principally two tournaments at St. Ignace's at Oxon Hill and at the home of Mrs. H. Armstrong at Forestville. The tournament at the former church, which is a branch of St. Teresa's, is to begin promptly at 1:20 and two classes of knights, amateur and novice, will ride. Senator Blair will be the master of the day, while E. Marvin Peach, candidate for State attorney, will be the orator of the evening. The tournament at Mrs. Armstrong's will be under the auspices of Epiphany Church, and the riding is to begin at 1 o'clock. P. C. Harrington will be the orator of the day with Clarence M. Roberts as orator of the evening.

The picnic which has been held on Labor Day for several years at the German Orphan Asylum will be omitted this year.

Electa Chapter No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star of this suburb and Anacostia Chapter No. 12, Royal Arcan Masons, will resume their meetings this month, after an omission during the months of July and August.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Frazier, of Maple View avenue with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Roberts and son, Francis, of Mt. View place, are leaving tomorrow afternoon for Piney Point, where they will remain until Tuesday.

The Anacostia Citizens' Association is to resume its meetings Wednesday evening at its rooms in Nichols avenue. The principal business to be transacted will be the completion of a list of improvements to be forwarded to the Commissioners.

The Public Improvement Association of Congress Heights, and the Randle Highlands Association will also resume their meetings this month, the former on the second Monday and the latter on the last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell, Miss Esther Mitchell and Mrs. E. R. Wilkerson have gone to La Plata for several days.

The children of the Episcopal Home for Children who are now occupying their summer home at Colonial Beach, expect to return Wednesday.

Rev. W. O. Roome, Jr., pastor of Emmanuel Church, is out of the city for a brief vacation. This morning the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Stevens, assistant rector of St. Stephen's parish, and this evening by Paul Green, lay reader, will be in charge.

Several citizens of this suburb are making complaint at the present time concerning the narrow sidewalks which will result in Nichols avenue
